1. Earn FREE Shipping

All shipments totaling less than $175.00 in merchandise will be charged standard FedEx or USPS published rates for the cost of shipping. Any orders of at least $175.00 in merchandise will receive FREE FedEx Ground delivery to any street address within the 48 contiguous states of the U.S., or a $7.95 discount off the published rates of FedEx Express and USPS delivery services.

2. Rush Orders

It is likely that we will fall several days behind in expediting shipments, due to the heavy order volume. Only FedEx Express 3-Day, 2-Day, and Overnight shipments will be given special processing priority. All other shipments will be filled on an "as we are able" basis.

3. No Retroactive Discounts

We will not be able to give you sale prices on orders placed before November 14. If you placed an order shortly before the sale began, we apologize in advance if you feel slighted. However, you are welcome to place another order before December 16 to stock up for the next few months.

4. Backorders

This sale offer is limited to supply on hand, and no backorders will be accepted during the course of the sale.

5. Online Ordering

All Client Appreciation Sale prices will be offered on our website for the duration of the sale. New and existing clients may order online and receive sale pricing between November 14 and December 16.

6. Referral Discounts

We will not be offering referral discounts to new clients during the sale. However, referral credit(s) will still be awarded to the referring client, and referral credits will be redeemable during the sale.

7. Retailer Pricing

Retailers may or may not be having a sale simultaneous to ours. If they are not offering similar sale prices during the time period of this sale, please be respectful of their pricing decisions. We appreciate our retail partners and the local convenience they provide to our clients. Shipping costs and transit times are trade-offs for sale pricing.

8. Returns and Exchanges

The 2011 closeout items offered in this sale will be changing in 2012. Therefore, we cannot accept returns or exchanges of those items (indicated in blue) that have been purchased during this sale.
